TONY HADLEY, STEVE NORMAN and JOHN KEEBLE shot to fame as SPANDAU BALLET with the Kemp brothers in the early 80's and led the "New Romantics" movement in the UK.

Hit single after Hit single followed and whilst "True" was number 1 in the singles chart during 1983 the band embarked on a "Spandau Ballet Over Britain" tour. This set the scene for Hadley, Norman & Keeble as playing live was what the core of the band was all about.

Much has been written and said about the demise of Spandua Ballet but what lives on is Tony,Steve and John playing live to sell out audiences throughout the world.

This concert was filmed at Pennington's, Yorkshire during Autumn 2002 and includes all the hit's and more and captures one of pop's most respected and professional bands at their peak.
